High Performance In-Ear Speakers™

Quick Start Guide and Warranty

⚠ Important Monster Performance and Safety Tips

- To avoid hearing damage, make sure that the volume on your music player is turned down before connecting your Turbine™ In-Ear Speakers.™ After placing the Turbine In-Ear Speakers in your ears, gradually turn up the volume until you reach a comfortable listening level.
- Avoid listening at high volume levels for prolonged periods. This may cause permanent hearing damage or loss.
- Be aware of your surroundings and use Turbine In-Ear Speakers responsibly. Do not use Turbine In-Ear Speakers when it is unsafe to do so – while operating a vehicle, crossing streets at crosswalks, or during any activity or environment where your full attention to your surroundings are required.
- Get the most out of your equipment by playing it at a safe level— Turbines will allow you to hear more details at lower volume levels then ever before.
- Learn how to establish a safe listening level and review other important safety guidelines from the Consumer Electronics Association at http://www.ce.org/ and the Deafness Research Foundation at http://www.drf.org/. What's in an Eartip?

The tips on the ends of your Monster Turbine In-Ear Speakers make the difference between good sound and great sound. With the right fit, you'll get better isolation from unwanted outside noise, increased bass response, and better tonal balance. Of course, the right fit will also feel more comfortable. That's why Monster supplies different sizes and designs of ear tips. Getting the perfect fit with the right tip is a matter of experimentation.
Try the various eartips included with your Turbines to find the best fit for the size and shape of your ear canal.

Eartip Selection:

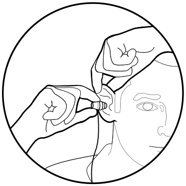

- Like fingerprints, everyone's ear canal is unique, because of this, there is no "best" eartip design, except that which works "best" for you.
- For optimal comfort and best sound, proper selection and fit of the right eartip is essential.
- You will achieve best performance with the most extended bass response when you choose the eartip that is large enough to create a complete seal in your ear canal, yet isn't not too large so that it becomes uncomfortable. The eartips should be inserted completely in your ear canals for best sound reproduction.
- We have provided you with an extensive variety of eartips, so that you may choose that which works best for you.

Left and Right Speakers

There are Red and Blue colored bands and “L” and “R” markings on each earpiece.
“L” with the Blue band is for the left ear.
“R” with the Red band is for the right ear.

Proper Insertion and Removal of Eartips

1. You may wish to lightly moisten your eartips for easier insertion.
2. Using your right hand, grasp the right speaker.
3. With your left hand, pull up and back on your right ear to straighten your ear canal.
4. Carefully insert your right in-ear speaker so that it seals completely and comfortably in your ear. Do NOT insert the speaker so deeply that your ear canal feels completely plugged.
5. Repeat this procedure for your left ear, grasping your left speaker with your left hand, and with your right hand, pull up and back on your left ear to straighten your ear canal, and carefully insert your left speaker so that it comfortably seals your ear canal as before.

- When you’ve finished your listening session, remove your in-ear speakers slowly with a twisting motion to gradually break the seal.

Turbine Eartip Fit Testing

A good way to gauge whether or not the eartip is sealing properly in your ear canal is by snapping your fingers right next to your ear. If the seal is proper, your ear will not feel "plugged," yet the snapping of your fingers will sound dull and distant. If you hear your finger snaps distinctly, the seal is probably not adequate. If the sound of your finger snapping is dull and distant, but your ear feels plugged up, like you're on an airplane preparing to land, then you've over-inserted the eartip.

Eartips in Use:

When using Monster Turbine In-Ear Speakers with a proper seal in an airplane or at high altitude the air pressure will change, thereby changing the sound that you will hear. The pressure inside your ears also will change as you go up and down in altitude. To remedy this, occasionally break the seal and re-insert your Turbines into your ears.

Cleaning the Eartips

- Keeping Turbine In-Ear Speakers clean is essential for safe, hygienic use.

- Do NOT attempt to clean the eartips without removing them from the Turbines. Firmly grip the eartip with one hand and the earphone with the other. Carefully remove the eartip from the earphone.

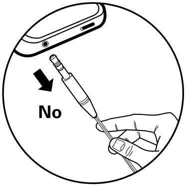

Getting the delicate circuitry inside your Turbines wet may cause permanent damage.

- Use warm water and mild soap on a damp cloth to remove dirt and earwax from the EARTIP. Do NOT use harsh cleaning agents.
- Rinse and completely dry your eartips before placing them back on your Turbine In-Ear Speakers.
- Carefully push the eartips on the Turbine eartube completely.

Care and Storage

- When not in use, always store your Turbine In-Ear Speakers in the protective case provided.
- Keep case closed, and store in a clean, dry environment.
- Do not store other items in the case, as this may result in damage or contamination.
- Avoid storage in extreme heat or cold.
- Avoid exposure to liquids, temperature extremes and high humidity.
- Never pull on cable to disconnect Turbine In-Ear Speakers from music player. Grasp the plug at the end of the cable and pull to disconnect.
